Tubac, Arizona (July 23, 2014)

Tubac Center of the Arts has been awarded an educational grant from the Santa Cruz Community Foundation of Southern Arizona to implement a new youth arts education program.

“Art Starts: Creatively Thinking and the Arts”

On Saturdays from September through April, Tubac Center of the Arts will provide local area youth and families an opportunity to learn and to create artworks relating to its exhibitions. Each Saturday will be led by a different artist/educator. As an extension of this year’s Summer Arts Program 2014, families and youth will have an opportunity to think creatively and to enjoy learning in partnership with the community. The program is free to Santa Cruz County families. Reservations are required. Space is limited. Call Tubac Center of the Arts at 520.398.2371 for reservations and more information.

Dates:

September 6th, October 18th, November 20th, December 13th and 20th, January 17th, February 21st, March 21st, and April 18th.

ABOUT THE SANTA CRUZ COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

An affiliate of the Community Foundation for Southern Arizona, The Santa Cruz Community Foundation (SCCF) is a permanent charitable resource that was founded in 2001 by area residents to empower their community to invest in itself.

The foundation assists Santa Cruz County to prepare for the future by strengthening the community, through local scholarships, grants, training and nonprofits (NPOs). There is a diverse set of NPOs on the border ranging from job training programs, community centers, boys and girls clubs, arts groups, environmental restoration, agriculture, indigenous arts and culture, humane societies, libraries, children's homes, domestic violence abuse programs, migrant shelters and soup kitchens that exist to alleviate the many inequalities and social and economic problems of the region.
